

Committee Information

Publications Committee: Examines all bids for official Midwest District publications, recommends the publishing chapters, and sets publishing schedules.

Convention Site Committee: Chaired by the host chapters, this committee reviews all bids for the 2005 District Convention, selects questions to be asked during a joint session, and will make recommendations on bid improvements. This committee will NOT slate a convention site.

Membership Committee: A strategic committee dealing with issues of membership retention, education, etc. This committee will assist the Vice President in creating and/or modifying programs related to membership.

Colonization Committee: A strategic committee dealing with colonization issues. Topics will include but not be limited to establishing colonies, choosing big brother chapter, the colonization process, etc. This committee will assist the Vice President in creating and/or modifying programs related to colonization.

Nominations Committee: Conducts interviews in front of the entire delegation and investigates eligibility of District Officer candidates. They nominate one candidate for each position to present to the delegation.

Programs Committee: Determines new guidelines or utilizes predetermined guidelines for various Midwest District awards and programs. This committee will assist the Member-at-Large in creating and/or modifying current district programs and/or awards. This committee will be a combination of strategic planning and traditional committee duties.

Jurisdiction Committee: Examines and makes any necessary corrections/changes to the Midwest District constitutions and bylaws as well as any policies or procedures pertaining to the delegation. This committee will also suggest changes in certain constitutional policies. This committee will be a combination of strategic planning and traditional committee duties.

Ways and Means Committee: Examines, recommends, and submits all propositions related to the finances of the Midwest District and prepares an operations budget to be presented to the convention floor. This committee will also deal with strategic issues related to fund-raising, use of district funds, and the commissioning fund.

All committee descriptions and/or meeting locations are subject to change at the discretion of the District Councils or host chapters. Such changes will be announced or posted prior to scheduled meeting times.